UNIVERSITY & HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATORS:

Erie County university and high school students, along with their educators, are invited to spend time with Erie County Bar Association's Law Day speaker, Doris Kearns Goodwin in a discussion moderated by Erie native and journalist Steve Scully.

Doris Kearns Goodwin is a world-renowned presidential historian, public speaker and Pulitzer Prize winning, New York Times #1 best-selling author. Since 2020 she has served as executive producer for the History Channel's miniseries events Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Theodore Roosevelt, with more to come!

Goodwin's career as a presidential historian and author was inspired when as a 24-year-old graduate student at Harvard she was selected to join the White House Fellows, one of America's most prestigious programs for leadership and public service. Goodwin worked with President Johnson in the White House and later assisted him in the writing of his memoirs.

We ask that students arrive to the Warner at 9:15 a.m. for the free student and educator only program, which will run from 9:45 to 10:45 a.m. Students and educators who attend the student program will have the option to stay for the main Law Day presentation at 11:00 a.m. in the theatre, which will end at 12:30 p.m. Please note, lunch will not be provided to the student and educator attendees this year.

Complete the form below to confirm your reservation and return it to Katie O'Neil at koneil@eriebar.com.

Attendance is limited to the first 300 registrants. Reservations are due by Friday, April 19, 2024.
